Get your State Pension

This is your invitation to claim your State Pension

26 January 2017

Dear Mr Wood

You can now claim your State Pension online.

What this means for you

You have 30 days from the date on this letter to claim online.

How to claim online:

1. Visit www.getstatepension.dwp.gov.uk
2. Enter your unique invitation code: WOOD435HN3
3. Follow the instructions. You'll need:
 - your partner's details, including the date you were married or became civil partners
 - dates of any previous marriages or civil partnerships
 - details of any time spent living or working abroad
 - your own bank or building society details

If you can't get online

Freephone 0800 731 7898 to get your State Pension. You'll be asked to give your National Insurance number and confirm other personal details.

Yours sincerely,

The State Pension Team

If you do not want to get your State Pension right now, you don't have to do anything.

You won't get any State Pension until you tell us you want it.

You may get extra money if you put off claiming your State Pension.
